and identity. Flyers and promotional material.

Whilst design has been my main interest within university I also enjoy keeping active. I am a keen mountaineer and have had the opportunity to travel. Climbing peaks in Switzerland, Italy and Morocco.
I have completed the Ten Tors event held on Dartmoor annually. Ten Tors is a team event where the aim is to cover 55 miles over moorland within the time limit of two days. I now have taken the skills I learned to help train younger teams to achieve their goal.
I am proud that in 2007 I completed the London marathon, and ran for the charity Clic Sargent raising £1500 for a good cause.
Within University I have managed to be involved in team sports parallel to my studies. I captained the Mens hockey 1 XI team for one season and held the position of social secretary for another season.
